Daifuku Named to CDP Climate Change “A List” for the First Time

Osaka, Japan – Daifuku Co., Ltd. is pleased to announce that the company has been selected for the first time for the highest rating “A List” by CDP, a non-profit organization that runs the world’s environmental disclosure system, in the category of climate change. CDP recognized the Daifuku Group’s commitment to climate change and its transparency in information disclosure.

In the Daifuku Environmental Vision 2050, we have established addressing climate change as one of our crucial issue areas, and we are implementing initiatives such as introducing renewable energy at each of our locations and reducing CO₂ emissions from our own business activities.

The Daifuku Group will continue to contribute to the creation of a sustainable society through our own efforts and cooperation with our customers and suppliers.
